October 7-11
Fall Part I

We got right into the season of fall with all of our five senses this week!!

We played with play dough that SMELLED like pumpkin pie. We went on a nature walk and HEARD the sound of the wind blowing the leaves and the crunch of the leaves under our feet. We WATCHED a squirrel eating nuts and LOOKED at leaves under our "spy" glasses. We made yummy pumpkin muffins for us to TASTE. We TOUCHED leaves and pine cones and noticed their textures.

We also spoke about how thankful we are for all the good things in our lives and created thanksgiving placemats.

We ended off a wonderful week with a very special day -Eli's 2nd birthday party!! Mazel Tov to Eli and to his Mummy and Daddy. And thank you for the yummy birthday cupcakes!!

Have a Wonderful Thanksgiving Weekend and looking forward to seeing everyone on Wednesday.

Taking a Closer Look

Falling into Autumn

Songs of the Week:

Five Little Leaves so Bright and Gay
Were dancing on a tree one day.
Along came a wind that blew through the town,
And one little leaf came tumbling down...

TTO: The wheels on the bus...
The leaves on the trees are tumbling down,
Tumbling down, tumbling down.
The leaves on the trees are tumbling down
All around the town.

Book of the Week:

"Let It Fall" By MaryAnn Cocca Leffler

"Fall" By Ann Herriges

"Autumn" By Gail Saunders-Smith

A word from the kids...

What I am Thankful For:

Ari: My mom and dad

Sheina: For my sisters who let me play with them.

Eli and Avi: still pondering the question

Outdoor Play!

One of our favorite parts of the day is outdoor play! It gives us time to run and climb, practice our balance and learn to take turns on the slide and ladder. We also love the sensory experience of playing in the sand! We had a great
